

Monday, August 4th, 2008

JOURNÉE DU COLONEL BY DAY

FREE

Join CHOO/COPO and the Bytown Museum for this fantastic community event! Celebrate the holiday named for one of Ottawa's founding fathers with live music, dancing, heritage demonstrators, costumed characters and games and face painting for the kids! 11:00 am to 4:00 pm.

Info: 613-562-0405

Free admission to the Bytown Museum. Come and experience one of Ottawa's oldest historical buildings!

See the ancient arts of lacemaking, spinning and weaving in action.

Come see the Ingleneuk Scottish Country Dancers as they dance and entertain!

Play olde fashioned games! Potato sack races, tug of war, and face painting are just a few of the many fun games!

Watch as the Blacksmith creates objects out of metal through this old and amazing tradition.

See the Royal Sappers demonstrate musket drills.

Schedule of Events

11:00 am – Colonel By Day Opening Ceremony

11:00 am – 4:00 pm – Colonel By Heritage Celebration

Ongoing:

Free admission to the Bytown Museum, outdoor Musketry Demonstrations, Lace Making, Flax and Linen Weaving, Heritage Rug Braiding techniques, Aboriginal Drumming, Blacksmithing, Heritage Games for the kids, tabletop exhibits from Ottawa's local heritage groups and museums, traditional Scottish dancing, costumed characters of Ottawa's past - including Colonel John By himself and more!

2:00 pm - 2:30 pm – Celtic Cross Ceremony

4:00 pm – Rideau Canal Festival Closing Ceremonies

Le lundi 4 août, 2008

JOURNÉE DU COLONEL BY DAY

Gratuit

Joignez-vous à CHOO/COPO et au Musée Bytown pour cette fantastique activité communautaire! Venez célébrer le congé en l'honneur de l'un des fondateurs de la ville d'Ottawa, avec de la musique, de la danse, des artisans, des personnages historiques, des jeux et du maquillage pour les enfants! De 11 h à 16 h.

Info: 613-562-0405

